| Farrington | John C.         | Died Jan. 16, 1848 AE 39yrs 4mo 10ds " Dear Friend, though from you I thus passed away, The Friendship we cherished will decay. Oh Weep Not for Me. Our Redeemer will save and Raise us at Last From the Might 'of the Grave. Dear Brothers and Sisters, though early we Part, I trust that We still are United in Heart. How Precious the Youth for Instruction Inclined Where Long I Endeavored to teach the young mind. The conflict is ended, my Trials are o'er. In sin and distress, I shall linger no More. The hope which I cherished in sickness and pain Is crowned with the bliss that Will Ever Remain" | OxLov02 | 65 |

Fox (John) Cemetery

1845 - 1873

OxLov03

Location: Continue on West Lovell Road to Foxboro Road and turn left. Continue until the road becomes dirt (Lord's Hill Rd). Go straight on this road for approx. 1 mile, turn left onto a dirt road straight up a hill which goes to Lord's Mine. Go approx. 1/3 mile until the heavy stone wall on the right becomes a small stonewall which is the perimeter of the cemetery. On the south side stone posts hold up an old wooden gate. Cemetery is overgrown. AKA Nevers Cemetery

Thy voice once so pleasant will cheer us not more. Our circle of friendship no more will thou join. While here we remain in the borders of time, The spring may appear in ther mantle of flowers, The birds sweetly carol in nature's fair bowers. But thou kind friend, we must bid thee fairwell, No longer on earth in our circle to dwell, Adieu dear sister, thy sufferings are o'er, Affliction and sorrow can reach thee no more. Adieu till we meet thee in mansions above; United forever in friendship and love" | E2      | 11      |

Slab City Plot

OxLov07

Location: Once a small cemetery located on the former Philip Taylor property, but no stones remain. A McAllister stone was once in the cemetery according to Helen Grover of East Stoneham. There do remain small field stones that appear to mark graves. It is reported that at one time another cemetery was across the road and the brook from the Taylor property but no stones remain and names of those who were buried there are not available.

Back Kingdom Cemetery

Mexico, Oxford, Maine

1845 - 1915

OxMex01

Penley Cemetery

Milton Plantation, Oxford, Maine

OxMiP01

N44° 28.2306' W 70° 34.4829'

Location: From South Rumford you will want to take the Mt. Zircon Walking Trail and follow it for about 2 miles on the logging roads that continue - there will be a section that the road splits 3 ways - a new wide logging road north - a older narrower logging road south and a more overgrown trail straight ahead and this is the one you want to take - about 5 minutes down this trail on the right is a maple tree with orange surveyors tape on it (3 bands) and here you go left on a path for about 150 yards to cemetery. If you look at a TOPO map you will see where the trail from South Rumford and the trail from Milton Plantation make an "X" and the cemetery is in the southern portion of that "X" between Mt. Glines and Mt. Zircon

Wight Cemetery

Newry, Oxford, Maine

1839 - 1983

OxNew04

Wight cemetery is located on Maine highway 26, about a mile from Grafton Notch State Park as you are heading toward New Hampshire. It is on the left side of the highway. According to "Newry Profiles" by Paula Wight, it was known as Head O Tide cemetery when it was established. A committee to lay out, contract for and fence the cemetery on the Bear River was named in 1814. (Another cemetery for Sunday River established Powers Cemetery in that part of Newry.) The committee members for Bear River were James Eames, Lt. Asa Foster and Joseph Jackson, according to Wight. The Wight cemetery was finally established around 1854. Land for the cemetery was originally owned by nearby farmer Caleb Barker and he was the cemetery's first sexton.

Highland Cemetery

Otisfield, Oxford, Maine

1813 - 1973

OxOfd06

Oak Hill Cemetery

Otisfield, Oxford, Maine

1840 - 1974

OxOfd08

Location: Leaving the Town Office at 403 State Route 121, turn right out of the driveway and go approximately 2 1/2 miles until you reach the stop sign. Go straight across onto Oak Hill Road and go approximately 2 miles (past the Gas Pipeline, and past the transmission line. Go up around the corner (Bishop Road is on your left). Just beyond the Bishop Road is Oak Hill Cemetery. Cemetery, maintained by the town, is closed.

From Hebron Corner take Rte 119 west on South Paris Road - take the 1st left onto East Oxford/Hebron Road and go about 2 1/2 miles and take another left at the 2nd crossroads onto Sam Rowe Hill Road and go about 1/2 mile atop Sam Rowe Hill on the left next to the road - Established in 1788

As you enter the cemetery you will find a road with stones on each side. The beginning of the cemetery is on the far left back corner, with stones facing the bushes. This is where the numbering begins, continuing in rows, left to right.

" * " following the first name indicates that the stone is in need of repair
