Brady Bailey            died 19 Sep 1856 Age 56

Charlotte E.            dau. of Adrian G. And Lydia H. Roberts died 18 Oct 1853 Age 1 yr. 7 mo.

Town Line Cemetery

Traveling by way of Dickvale Road, go to Tammy Mawhinney's home on the left, going through his field. The cemetery is located about 300 feet from the Peru/Woodstock town line on an old road on the southeasterly side of said road.

The cemetery is about 30 feet square, encircled by a stone wall. There seems to be one grave, with one field stone that might mark the grave.

"Note 2669, The following gravestone records are copied from "The Sunday River Cemetery" in Newry, Maine. B.P.W." (BPW was Mrs. Benson (Martha A. Fifield) Perley Wilkins, a distant cousin of mine. Her book, SUNDAY RIVER SKETCHES, was published in 1977. This information is from Randy Bennett of the Bethel Historical Society.) Boston Transcript, November 4, 1937 - Riley Plantation, also known as Ketchum, in Oxford County, Maine, no longer has any permanent residents within its borders, consequently it is now classified as "wild Land T.A. No. 1 - On the old Alonzo Fifield farm there remains a little graveyard containing these graves of former inhabitants, which are marked, and as many whose names have been forgotten.

Copied in 1973

by Carol Swan, Theresa Picard, Ellen Constantine, Madeline MacDonald, Betty Taylor & Ray Jackson

Total Entries: 441

Section I & Section II of this cemetery are separated by a fence. All of Section II memorials are on small wooden crosses (Paupers section). There are 2 transcriptions for Section II: one compiled by Mrs. Emily L. Bean, former Town Clerk of Rumford, ME and 1 done in 1973 by Teresa Picard (taken from the crosses(?)). Both recordings have been included here.
